The main event of the evening was a boxing match between former world heavyweight champion Deontay "The Bronze Bomber" Wilder and rising star Andy "The Destroyer" Ruiz Jr. The fight was a back-and-forth affair, with both fighters landing heavy blows. In the end, it was Wilder who emerged victorious, knocking out Ruiz in the seventh round to retain his WBC heavyweight title.

The co-main event of the evening was an MMA bout between former UFC welterweight champion Tyron "The Chosen One" Woodley and rising star

Vicente "The Silent Assassin" Luque. The fight was a grappling-heavy affair, with both fighters looking to take the fight to the ground. In the end, it was Luque who emerged victorious, submitting Woodley with a rear-naked choke in the second round.

In addition to the main event and co-main event, Miami Showdown Coastal Fury 26 also featured a number of other exciting fights, including:

- A boxing match between former world light heavyweight champion Sergey "Krusher" Kovalev and rising star Gilberto "Zurdo" Ramirez
- An MMA bout between former UFC bantamweight champion Cody "No Love" Garbrandt and rising star Sean "Suga" O'Malley
- A boxing match between former world welterweight champion Keith "One Time" Thurman and rising star Mario "El Azteca" Barrios
- An MMA bout between former UFC featherweight champion Max "Blessed" Holloway and rising star Arnold "Almighty" Allen

Miami Showdown Coastal Fury 26 was a night of non-stop action and excitement. The fights were competitive, the crowd was electric, and the atmosphere was unforgettable.
